students who have head lice will be sent home and may not return to school until the infestation has been treated successfully.

This leads to aggravation of the symptoms and changes on the nose, a condition called rhinophyma.

There are numerous tragedies embedded in the events on e